It's splendidly ripe and inviting on the nose with blackberry, dried herb, cumin and roasted almond notes, leading to a delectable palate that's filled with succulent fruit flavours backed by fine texture and polished tannins. Beautifully styled and highly enjoyable. At its best: now to 2032.

An enticing focused and concentrated bouquet with complexity and varietal scents of dark black currants and chocolate, Doris plums, five spice and red earth soil qualities. Delicious on the palate with flavours that mirror the bouquet, an abundance of finely tuned tannins and medium+ acid line. Balanced and well made, still youthful with some tautness and age worthy attributes. Best drinking from late 2023 through 2029+.
