September 2022 Richly fruited and enticing, the bouquet presents aromas of blackberry, cake spice, olive, and hazelnut, leading to a wonderfully weighted palate that offers fleshy texture and layers of silky tannins. Generous and flavoursome with a lengthy, delectable finish.

June 2025 Dark ruby and purple core with a pink rim leads to a bouquet of dark berries especially raspberry, a jammy quality then plum and baking spices of vanilla and clove. Juicy and fleshy textures with fine tannins and plenty of acidity for freshness and backbone. Fruit flavours are persistent as are the baking spice and some earthy qualities. Best drinking from day of purchase through 2029.

August 2022 In keeping with the name, this is savoury, earthy and textured. There is a core of ripe fruit, but this is a little bit brooding and closed right now. An excellent wine that could go well with spicy food.

September 2022 Intense ruby red in the glass. Black fruit and graphite aromatics. Forward palate fills with dark berries and then as it flows we see pepper spices and broken dark slate minerality build in power. Fine grained yet powerful tannins keep it focused and add length. A lot of wine for the price.
