

Wee Angus Merlot

2021

92 POINTS

Sam Kim | Wine Orbit

December 2022 This is fruit-forward and immediately appealing on the nose with blackcurrant, toasted nut, vanilla and rich floral aromas. The palate displays supple mouthfeel and generous weight, beautifully supported by succulent fruit flavours and spicy nuances. Upfront and

Campbell Mattinson | The Wine Front

January 2023 There's more complexity here than you might expect. It's squeaky clean and yet there are flavours of smoked meats, dried herbs, black cherry and mulberry, with dry clovey-spice and gum leaf notes flying about. It just makes it into medium weight but the polish

Stuart Knox | The Real Review

January 2023 Deep ruby with a bouquet of plums and dry herbs. Quite juicy and plump on the palate with simple, bright purple fruits and touches of woody herbs. Reasonable length and ample tannins to frame and dry the palate. Good value.
