June 2025 It's delightfully ripe and fragrant on the nose with sweet plum, cherry, olive, and nutmeg aromas. The palate displays juicy fruit intensity with supple texture and fine tannins, making it smooth and immediately appealing.

January 2026 The concept behind this wine is stated on the back label: it is 'red meat's perfect partner. It's hard to argue that it isn't, not with the warmth and richness of flavour married to a muscular tannin structure that is more than capable of taking on an Angus steak or rich protein. A merlot on steroids, and yet there is real charm to its black fruits and plum, its spice, its licorice, earth and smooth, accomplished finish. Fab price, too.
