August 2022 Rich blueberry and gingerbread aromas with plenty of spice that is well suited. The palate is smooth, fleshy and attractively open-knit with enough tannin to carry the finish long. Drink on release. Barrel sample.

December 2022 A striking bouquet of power and ripeness, varietal aromas of dark berries and toasty wood and peppery black fruits. The smokiness of the oak is both strong on the nose and the palate. Nice weight and plenty of intensity, core fruit flavours mirror the bouquet with black currant and dark raspberry, roasted plums and layers of anise and clove, vanilla and wood smoke. There's complexity and lots of attention seeking qualities. Best drinking from 2023 through 2029.

March 2023 Richly ripe and perfumed, it's gorgeously expressed on the nose showing dark and purple fruit intensity, toasty oak, dark chocolate and warm spice aromas. The palate delivers excellent concentration and plump mouthfeel, wonderfully complemented by plush texture and fine tannins. At its best: now to 2034.
