

NÖT GUILTY

Not Guilty is a range of full-flavoured, full-bodied zero alcohol wines that know how to have a good time (and still get up for work in the morning). The Zero Crew are here to break the rules and enjoy a drink with wine lovers who want all the fun without the baggage.

Our Rosé Prosecco is fizzing with flavour, pop the cork and start the celebration with Zero Alcohol.

Zero Rosé Prosecco

Rose Pale Salmon pink in colour. Lifted tropical and rose petal aromas. Sweet aromatic yellow fruit flavours with a crisp spritzy finish.

Region South Eastern Australia

Colour Pale straw pink

Aroma Lifted citrus and pear floral notes

Palate Fresh and fruity wine with lively bubbles and a zesty finish

Notes The fruit was crushed, de-stemmed and immediately clarified. Primary fermentation followed after inoculating with selected yeast strains. Fermentation was carried out at cool temperature to preserve the fruit. Fermentation lasted for 2 weeks. Post fermentation the wine was racked off the ferment lees and remained on light lees until blended. Once stabilised, we use the latest spinning cone technology, working at low temperatures to gently remove the alcohol, ensuring wines maintain their delicate fruit flavours.
