Aromas and flavours of dark plums and cherry flesh, there's a light mineral earth quality and some baking spice moments. Dry with moderate tannins and medium+ acid line, and coupled with the core of red fruit flavours delivers a balanced even wine across the palate. Best drinking from 2023 through 2026.

Brightly fruited and inviting, the bouquet shows sweet plum, dried herb, mixed spice and toasted almond notes. The palate displays succulent fruit flavours with smooth texture and rounded mouthfeel, finishing juicy and finely dry. Friendly and gently expressed. At its best: now to 2027.
