

Dry Red No 2

2018

96 POINTS

Huon Hooke | The Real Review

July 2020

Deep red colour with a good purple tinge, and very attractive range of aromas, with less spice and more oak than the Underhill, black fruits, tar and graphite, black olive tapenade and trace of black pepper. Its full bodied, intensely-focused and piercing, with elegance as well as drive. A smart wine highly nuanced as usual and really excellent

