Huon Hooke | The Real Review

May 2023

Deep-ish vibrant ruby with a good tint of purple, subtle bouquet includes white pepper, vegetal notes, meaty charcuterie and a whiff of reduction a brighter and more youthful wine than expected at this age, elegant and medium bodied with refreshing acidity and refined profile. Stylish wine that tastes like a cooler year.

Deep-ish red purple colour with a pepper dominant aroma, black pepper is uppermost among a basket of spices. There's a hint of vegetal note definite whole bunch nuances. The fruit flavour wins. The palate is deep in sweetly ripe dark cherry. Raspberry and blackberry flavours and the tannins are nicely rounded. It has a lovely fruit sweet core. Utterly delicious shiraz.
