Dark purple colour with violet hue and black core. Well concentrated modern nose with distinct aroma reminiscent of dark chocolate and mild spices, blackcurrants and blackberries. On the palate elegant yet well concentrated with fresh fruit and finely toasted oak. An elegant wine with good aromatic depth and very good length.

I like the chocolate and blackberry character to this with some wet earth. The palate is medium-to full-bodied with firm tannins and a linear finish. Better than the 2018.
