Richly fruited and complex, the bouquet shows blackcurrant, smoked game, dried herb, and fine oak aromas. The palate delivers excellent weight, a plump mouthfeel, and chalky tannins, making it wonderfully harmonious and sturdy with a lengthy, satisfying finish.

Smooth, ripe, fruity, earthy and immediately approachable expression from a quality Bordelaise producer. Aromas and flavours of plums and blackberry, quite earthy with tilled soil suggestions. A dry wine on the palate persistent flavours of plums and dark berries, some whispers of chocolate and tobacco, chocolate and baking spices. Balanced, well made and ready to drink from day of purchase through 2030.
