James Molesworth | Wine Spectator Magazine

February 2021 This features a range of dark plum, raspberry and boysenberry compote flavors that have a lightly mulled edge, showing hints of dried garrigue and juniper. Alluring, with a nice caressing feel on the finish.

December 2020 This is flatteringly gorgeous; showing dark berry, spicy oak, leather and cake spice aromas on the nose with a hint of cocoa. The palate exhibits outstanding weight and richly textured mouthfeel, wonderfully enhanced by layers of complex flavours and silky tannins. At its best: now to 2032.

April 2021 Strong ruby garnet, ochre reflections, wider edge lightening. Fine ripe plum fruit, a hint of spices and nougat, inviting bouquet. Juicy, ripe cherries, freshly textured, intergrated tannis, mineral-lemony touch to finish, will benefit from bottle maturity.
