WORLD WHISKIES AWARDS

2014

Gold Medal, Best Islay Single Malt 12YO and Under

An absence of smoke means the true nature of this whisky comes through with flapjack, honey and almond. Delicious. Joel Harrison

Very subtle, very delicate, slight spice almost cumin. Initially savoury and fiery on the palate but fades to reveal a bit of apple and wood. Lucy Britner

Very appealing brown sugar, syrup, old furniture, natural caramel and autumn leaves. Pleasingly sweet on the palate, with some raisin cake and a hint of wood smoke. Tim Forbes

Creamy vanilla with spicy aromas of well toasted bread. A fine fruity nose, a noticeable minerality and a clean maltiness. A gentle smoke with a fresh spicy finish. A floral, herbal, peaty nose with bitter almonds and oily aromas. Herbal and buttery mouth feel with a peaty subtle smoke. A delicate floral peaty finish with a dryer end.
