A classic bouquet filled with scents of ripe and sour red berry fruits, some spice and dried herb layers with moderate oak impacts. The best action comes on the palate with flavours of fresh cherry and baking spice of soil and a touch of barrel the sour fruits with combined with firm tannins and plenty of acidity to deliver a squeeze, tension and power. Well made, developing and ready to drink from 2023 through 2027. I feel like food would enhance the flavours and texture so f this example.

Complex and savoury, the wine shows dark berry, dried herb, smoky bacon and nutmeg aromas, followed by a finely textured palate delivering excellent weight and grainy tannins. Structured and sturdy, making it a wonderful partner to rich savoury dishes. At its best: now to 2030.
