LAMBRUSCO NV

Paul Tudor, Top 50 Wines for Winter, May 2017

Grapey, juicy, slightly sweet and slightly fizzy red wine. Well chilled, Lambrusco is a fun, easy-drinking summer quaffer, but this Italian bubbly is also a great accompaniment to highly seasoned or salty foods and I will certainly crack open a bottle or two this winter. Medici Ermete is one of the best producers of Lambrusco and this, their entry-level wine, is outstanding value for money.

A fun little wine, this is an easy-drinking, sweet sparkling red wine filled with ripe berry flavours. It's lively and juicy, and smooth to the finish. Low alcohol makes it a great anytime wine.
