GOLD MEDAL

The Global Masters, Rioja 2019 | The Drinks Business

January 2020

This red is balanced and polished. Black cherry and plum flavors mingle with licorice and forest floor notes, finishing with floral and mineral accents. Shows a firm structure and fresh acidity. Drink now through 2026. A nice balance of fruit and savory flavors. Accessible and ready to pair with food."

Wonderfully complex and engaging, the bouquet shows blackberry, dried cherry, spicy oak and smoked game characters, followed by a beautifully rounded palate that is silky yet firmly structured by chalky tannins. Multilayered, spicy and savoury with a terrific long finish. At its best: now to 2022.
