

OLYMPUS[®] OUZO

ORIGIN	Greece
RAW MATERIAL	Anise
DISTILLATION	Copper stills
SIZE	6 x 700ml
ABV%	37%
TASTING NOTE	Made in Greece using an authentic family recipe Its distinctive flavour comes from the seed of the anise plant, with prevalent notes of licorice and fennel.
SERVING	With its clean aroma and intense aniseed mouth feel, Olympus Ouzo lends itself to being sipped neat, or mixed with fresh water and ice. Ouzo is usually mixed with water, becoming cloudy white, sometimes with a faint blue tinge, and served with ice cubes in a small glass. Ouzo can also be drunk straight from a shot glass. Ouzo is often served with a small plate of a variety of appetizers called mezes, usually small fresh fish, fries, olives and feta cheese. Ouzo can be described to have a similar taste to absinthe which is liquorice-like, but smoother.
