September 2023

A core of dark purples and hues of ruby with a pinkish rim lead to a bouquet of blackcurrant and dark plum flesh, moments of milk chocolate and summer berry pudding. Dry, fresh, salivating and with core fruit flavours that reflect the bouquet. Tannins layer in texture and with acidity deliver a palate squeeze matching the vintage and youthful energy. Best drinking from 2024 through 2028.

Upfront and generously fruited, the inviting bouquet shows blackcurrant, thyme, nutmeg and smoked game characters, leading to a splendidly flavoursome palate offering supple texture and grainy tannins. Sturdy yet silky and immediately drinkable. At its best: now to 2029.
