92 POINTS & BEST VALUE RED OF THE YEAR

Tim Atkin | Argentina 2022 Special Report

June 2022 Given the volumes involved, the quality and consistency of this wine are remarkable. In fact, this may be the best vintage yet. Very lightly wooded, it's an equal blend of grapes from Luján de Cuyo and the Uco Valley, with violet and rose petal perfume, fine tannins, tangy black cherry and blueberry fruit and a vibrant finish.

January 2023 Great colour and bouquet with aromas of black cherry and a mix of red berry fruits, there's a white smoke and mineral quality with a steel then violet suggestion and mild milk-chocolate idea. On the palate - warm, fruity and youthful, flavours mirror the bouquet with mix of tart and ripe fruits, plums and dried spice with a light-weight mineral-earth quality. Well made and ready to drink from day of purchase through 2024+.

March 2023 A lovely juicy attack of dark cherry, combined with cured meat, thyme and toasty oak, it's fruit-expressive on the palate offering silky texture and supple mouthfeel. It's bold yet smooth with a lengthy succulent finish. At its best: now to 2027.
