

School House Pinot Gris

2023

92 POINTS

Stephen Wong | realreview.com

December 2024

A nutty, more developed Alsace-inspired style with complex ginger spice on a broad, deeper-pitched palate of stone-fruit and brioche. Generous with up-front weight and a rounded texture trimmed by a streak of acidity which balances out the honeyed, off-dry finish. At a very drinkable stage—having moved into complex tertiary flavours.