

GRAHAM NORTON'S SAUVIGNON BLANC 2023

TASTING NOTE:

The Graham Norton 2023 Sauvignon Blanc is intense, refreshing and delicious on its own or with food. The tenth vintage of this top tittle - blended by Graham himself and Invivo Cofounders Tim Lightbourne and Rob Cameron - has a gorgeous fresh and aromatic nose with strong scents of nashi pear, fresh cut apple and papaya. The palate instantly appeals with tropical fruit flavours dominating and a lively, balanced acidity that compliments the layers of ripe pineapple and citrus perfectly. It's sunshine in a glass!

Country: New Zealand
Region: Marlborough, Hawkes Bay, Gisborne
Variety: 88% Sauvignon Blanc, 8% Pinot Gris,
4% Chardonnay
Brix at harvest: 20.5
Harvest date: March 2023

Bottle size: 750ml
Closure: Stelvin cap
Winemaker/s: Graham Norton and (in small part)
Rob Cameron

ANALYSIS:

Residual Sugar: 6.5g/L    pH: 3.2
Alcohol: 12%         TA: 8.7

ACCOLADES:

94 Points/5 Stars, Wine Orbit/Sam Kim (2022 vintage)
89 Points, Wine Spectator (2022 vintage)
Double Gold, New York International Wine Competition 2022 (2021 vintage)
Marlborough Sauv Blanc of the Year, New York Intl Wine Comp 2022 (2021 vintage)
Double Gold, China Wine & Spirits Competition (2018, 2019 and 2020 vintages)
Double Gold, Women's Wine & Spirits Competition 2018 (2018 vintage)

Founded by two Kiwi school friends Tim Lightbourne and Rob Cameron back in 2008, Invivo is one of New Zealand's leading wine producers. A cheeky phone call from Tim and Rob in 2011 led to TV talk show host Graham Norton not only putting his name to a range of wines made with Invivo, but personally blending them and owning shares in the winery! The collaboration quickly expanded and now includes a range of seven wines and four spirits. This year Graham Norton and Invivo are celebrating ten years of partnership, having sold over 18 million bottles of wine together over the years. With more than 250 accolades awarded globally, it's no surprise the brand has been such a phenomenal success across the world.

IT'S GOT THAT DELICIOUS NEW ZEALAND ZING, IT'S SUNSHINE IN A GLASS! - GRAHAM NORTON, CHIEF WINEMAKER