REGION

Due to their thin skins, the Malbec grape needs more sun and heat than other red wine grapes to fully mature. HE-DEVIL's Malbec grapes come from Northern Mendoza, which boasts a warm climate and low annual rainfall, creating perfect growing conditions for this variety.

TASTING NOTE

From Mendoza, the home of Argentinian Malbec, Graham Norton's Own HE-DEVIL is a wine to sit up and take notice of. Deep purple in the glass with a bouquet of sweet spice and plum compote which envelopes the palate with a sweet toasty finish.

AWARD WINNING COLLABORATION

GN HE-DEVIL is an intense, big, juicy and slight sweet red wine following the trend of red blends. GN Wines have sold over 10 million bottles since launch, available in 10 countries. The wines are the most awarded celebrity wine collaboration in recent years, receiving over 200 medals and 90 point ratings including numerous gold medals at the People's Choice Awards and Drinks Business Awards, plus multiple top reviews from the world's top wine writers. Graham Norton and the Invivo winemaking team are excited to unleash the HE-DEVIL!
