It's beautifully styled and complex on the nose with dark plum, spicy oak, subtle tobacco, olive and rich floral aromas. The palate delivers excellent weight and plump mouthfeel, wonderfully supported by silky texture and polished tannins. Generous and flavoursome with a lengthy satisfying finish. At its best: now to 2031.

A ripe fruited and enticing bouquet filled with aromas of blackberry and dark plum, some compotes of both then layers of clove and vanilla, some nut and dried herb, violet and moments of graphite and stone. Lovely weight and texture touches the palate first with a firm tannin and youthful acid line then flavours of blackberry and dark red berry and stone fruits. This wine is still very youthful and needs some cellar time to settle and develop. Well made with a lengthy finish offering best drinking from 2025 through 2030+. Decant for service before then and serve high protein food alongside.
