

INVIVO TAYLOR'S ROSÉ 2022

Founded by two Kiwi wine entrepreneurs in 2008 (the two mad fellas Tim and Rob!) Invivo is one of New Zealand's leading producers and our mission is to bring people together so great things can happen.

We have a down to earth approach and make products that our mates would drink and talk about it the same way – honest, down to earth and no BS!

We run two local wineries and manage over 400 hectares in leased and grower vineyards in Marlborough, Hawkes Bay, Gisborne, and Central Otago.

Welcome to the first vintage of our new Invivo label, a classy refresh highlighting the Invivo star – four arrows coming together representing our founders and bringing people together so great things can happen! Taylor's Rosé is named after Cofounder Tim's son Taylor.

TASTING NOTE:

Electric pale pink with blueberries and watermelon evolving from the glass. The 2022 Invivo Rosé is a return to our Pinot Noir driven Rosé from previous vintages. This wine will not disappoint with a rich berry fruit palate but with great acid spine giving a full bodied yet refreshing finish.

Bright and elegantly fragrant, the wine shows white flesh stone fruit, Asian pear and floral aromas, leading to a delightfully refreshing palate that's juicy and lingering. Beautifully poised and finely flowing to a lengthy supple finish. At its best: now to 2025.

From NZ's most innovative winery, the fellas behind the world's first winery airline and the infamous global shipping protest!
