

INVIVO TAYLOR'S ROSÉ 2025

Founded by two Kiwi wine entrepreneurs in 2008, Tim and Rob, Invivo is one of New Zealand's leading producers and our mission is to bring people together so great things can happen.

We have a down to earth approach and make wines that our mates would drink and talk about it the same way, down to earth and no BS!

We run two local wineries in Te Kauwhata, New Zealand, and manage over 400 hectares in leased and grower vineyards in Marlborough, Hawkes Bay, Gisborne, and Central Otago.

TASTING NOTE

Beautifully pale pink in the glass, this Pinot Noir based rosé displays summer strawberries and cream on the nose. The palate is vibrant and fresh, with flavours of citrus and ripe summer fruits. Super fresh and delicious!
