Complex and gorgeously styled, the bouquet reveals ripe apricot, rockmelon, lemon peel, vanilla, and hazelnut aromas with a hint of oatmeal. The palate is concentrated and focused with excellent depth and persistence, wonderfully framed by a silky texture and finely pitched acidity, leading to a prolonged, satisfying finish.

Great colour and bold bouquet of richly scents stone fruits of peach and nectarine, then red apple and roasted nut, some vanilla-cream and lees then wood smoke. On the palate a full-bodied dry wine with a satin-cream touch, then a nut and peach, apple and citrus peel bank of flavours. Delicious and fresh, rounded and tasty with a gentle cheese-rind quality, Brazil-nut and lees. I love it and if you like this style, you will love it also. Best drinking from day of purchase through 2032.
