May 2026

Very youthful core of ruby, purple and magenta leading to a bouquet of fresh, ripe black cherry and plum, boysenberry and violets, stony red clay soil ideas and a lifted floral highlight. Dry, fruity, varietal and taut with fine tannins and a backbone of acidity showcasing the youthful floral charms of the variety, then framing the red fruits and fine baking spice and gentle reductive tones. Well made, still developing though ready to drink as well from day of purchase through 2031+.
