This is superbly fruited and wonderfully complex on the nose showing dark berry, warm spice, cedar, mushroom and game nuances, leading to a gracefully expressed palate offering awesome concentration and refined mouthfeel. Soothing and silky with beautifully layered textures, finishing impressively long and expansive. At its best: now to 2032.

Varietal and complex, a core of minerality precedes aromas of a range of cherries and magosteen berries, old raspberries then some strawberry and baking spices of oak. Layers of complexity from French oak use including a roasted cashew nut quality then barrel spices and some wood smoke moments. Complex and youthful with pinosity at the core. An abundance of tannins have polish and finesse as well as needle-point texture. Medium+ acid line pulls everything together adding length and freshness as well. Excellent drinking from 2022 through 2029+.
