Fragrant, floral, spiced and varietal. A lovely bouquet with personality and style. Flavours of fresh apple and pears, honeysuckle, white pepper and dried herbs. A satin texture throughout the palate with a medium+ acidity, fresh white spice and a core of fruit. Balanced, well made and ready to drink from 2022 through 2026+.

November 2022

Bright, pale yellow with depth, even colour throughout. The nose is softly full and fragrant, aromas of white lily and magnolia filled the glass, underlying lychee, rambutan, rose petals and spice. Medium-full bodied, off-dry to taste, aromas of lychee, rambutan entwined with ripe pear, rose petals and ginger, white lily and magnolia linger to a long, perfumed finish. Oily, honeyed textured mouthfeel shows weight and plushness; refreshing and balanced acidity compliments and drives a long, spice finish. This juicy, plush Gewurztraminer exhibit tropical fruit with ginger, rose and rich floral fragrance on an opulent off-dry palate.

Off-dry gewürztraminer with classic Turkish delight/rose petal, lychee flavours plus a hint of struck flint. Delicately luscious wine with an ethereal texture and lingering finish. Should develop nicely with bottle age.

February 2023

Offering top value, the 2022 vintage from Pegasus Bay was fermented in old oak puncheons and briefly barrel-aged. Full-bodied, it has concentrated, peachy, distinctly spicy flavours, showing good complexity, a splash of sweetness, gentle acidity and a wellrounded finish.

July 2022

The nose leaps out of the glass, Turkish delight, rose petal, gunflint. Palate echoes the nose, a touch of sweetness turning drier and dustier as it flows through the mouth. Picks up almondy nuttiness and growing spice notes with air; that touch of sweetness a little more evident. Heart on its sleeve stuff, super appeal and crying out to be enjoyed now.
