Aromas and flavours of dark plums and blackberries, there's a layer of dried spice blackcurrant and violets then a light wood smoke quality. Dry with a decent weight and lost of fruit concentration, layers of flavour framed by rue and fine tannins and decent level of acidity for freshness and style. Well made (as always) with best drinking from day of purchase through 2030.

Attractively fruited and fragrant, the bouquet shows blackcurrant, dried herb, game, and assorted nut aromas. The succulent palate delivers silky texture and plump mouthfeel, beautifully structured by polished tannins, finishing long and flavoursome. At its best: now to 2029.
