October 2023 Aromas of peaches and red apples, some apricot and hibiscus flowers. A layer of honeysuckle and delicate white spice with a lees touch adds complexity and charm. Crisp and dry on the palate with plenty of texture from acidity and fine tannins adding a light chalky mouthfeel. Core flavours reflect the bouquet with a refreshing salivating quality. Well made with a dry finish and offering best drinking from 2023 through end of summer 2025.
