95 POINTS & 5 STARS

Bob Campbell MW | The Real Review

January 2022

Bright, delicately aromatic pinot noir with cassis, dark plum, violet, wood smoke and quite prominent spicy oak. The wine has an appealing purity and seamlessness. It delivers power with consummate subtlety. Accessible now but promises to age gracefully.

February 2022

Gorgeously seductive and perfumed, the bouquet shows red cherry, floral, thyme and warm spice aromas with a hint of mushroom complexity. The palate offers impressive substance and seamless flow, beautifully complemented by fleshy texture and fine polished tannins. Superbly harmonious and multi-layered with a prolonged velvety finish. Best: 2023 to 2034.

5 STARS

This deep-ruby, scented, softly mouthfilling red is notably savoury, with rich ripe, complex cherry, plum and spice flavours, well-rounded and lingering. In a "blind" tasting, I would pick Martinborough as the region of origin.
